

Travel Fellowship Application

The Australasian Institute of Anatomical Sciences (AIAS) Travel Fellowship was established by the AIAS in 2019. The intention of this award is to enable or assist AIAS members and associated students to attend the annual AIAS conference for the corresponding year awarded, to present their work and support professional growth through sharing of knowledge in the anatomical sciences.

There are up to five (three staff, two student) Fellowships available in 2019, ranging from a minimum of $500 to a maximum of $1200 each. Responsibility for the selection of successful recipients, the amount awarded and the conditions of the award lie with the AIAS Executive Committee. The AIAS Executive Committee reserves the right to vary the number of Fellowships awarded each year dependent on available finances.

Eligibility Criteria:

To be considered, the applicant must:

1. Be a current employee or student of an Australian or New Zealand University or associated institution
2. Be a current financial member of AIAS
3. Have been a financial member of the AIAS for at least three years (staff only)
4. Contribute to the conference with either an oral presentation or a poster.

The recipient must:

- use the awarded amount towards the conference to be held in the same year as the Fellowship awarded.
- provide a report on the conference for the following AIAS newsletter.
- acknowledge AIAS funding support in any presentation, report or publication.

To Apply:

1. Complete application form
2. Attach supporting documentation:
 - a. Abstract for oral presentation or poster
 - b. Referee (this should be a manager or academic supervisor)
 - c. Confirmation that funding is not provided by University or Institution, or if part funded, the amount

Submit your application form and supporting documents to:

AIAS secretary
secretary@aias.net.au

Applications close July 31, 2019. Late applications will not be considered.

Should you be successful, you will be notified in writing via email with the details of the amount awarded and instructions regarding transfer of funds towards travel.

Unsuccessful applicants will be notified in writing via email.

Please note an award recipient may only receive a travel fellowship once every three years. Successful applicants will be ineligible to apply for travel fellowships for the following two years.
